

Exam Report

---

Module Code/Title:

Module Leader:

Feedback comments:

166 students took the PHYS1015 Motion and Relativity exam. Scores were generally good with an average of 73%. The section A questions were generally answered well and in section B most students chose one question from the Newtonian mechanics half (B1) and one from the special relativity half (B4). Scores were generally good. The failure rate was roughly 5%. The overall mark distribution indicated that this was a satisfactory assessment exercise.